Old Business

1. Code Enforcement Position

Commissioner President Phippin advised that John Williamson, the selection by the Commissioners to be the new Code Enforcement Officer, was having difficulty with his current employer, the Fruitland Police Department. Evidently, there may have been a way for John to work part-time for Hebron as the Code Enforcement Officer, but now it seems that John will not be able to accept the job for the Town of Hebron. After some discussion, Commissioner Pick made a Motion that Jonah Long be hired to be the new Code Enforcement Officer and that he be paid at the rate of $35.00 per hour for a maximum of ten (10) hours per week, be provided with a printer for his car and that we should look for a computer or tablet for him to use. Commissioner Hooper seconded the Motion. The Motion was passed unanimously and the Chair voted Aye.

New Business
